Broker Rights and Obligations

1. MBFX has the right to supervise and guide IB throughout the process.
2. MBFX has the obligation to pay the exact amount of the reward to IB according to the service agreement.
3. MBFX will not deliver any rewards to IB who fail to achieve promotion targets during the reward period.
4. MBFX reserves the full right to deny payment for any illegal actions from IB, such as cheating, fraud, or dishonest ways of promotion.
5. During the event, any breach of these Terms and Conditions of the Event, such as using the same IP address for trading at the same time, conducting unauthorized, misconduct, fraudulent, or other improper usage, such as arbitrage, scalping, high-frequency trading, latency arbitrage, and malicious hedging with multiple accounts, etc., MBFX has the right to decline participation, immediately cancel one's qualification, deduct improper profits, and terminate the partnership with clients. Any termination of the partnership (disqualification of events, deduction of improper profits, etc.) caused by improper trading shall be borne by traders themselves. MBFX has sole discretion to determine the trading methods. In addition, for the protection of clients' rights and privacy, MBFX may not be able to provide relevant proof of events. Clients participating in this event are regarded as fully understanding and accepting the above content. If clients are judged to have improper trading behavior, they have no right to post malicious comments or words that would damage MBFX's reputation on any social media or channels; otherwise, one should bear legal responsibilities.
