Close All Positions:

It is advised to close all positions before initiating a transfer, as the transfer amount will impact your trading account.

Effect on Trading Conditions:

The transfer during active trades may affect trading conditions, including margin and free margin.

Client Responsibility:

The transfer process takes a few minutes, and during this time, if any mishap or loss occurs, the client must assume full responsibility for internal transfers.

Promotion Exclusion:

Promotions are not applicable to internal transfers as part of the terms and conditions.
